Tips About Giving Bonuses' & Gifts to Employees

A big mistake employers make is giving out rewards or bonuses that they want but not ones their employee wants. Be careful not to confuse a holiday appreciation gift with a performance bonus.

In a poll conducted by Express Employment Professionals, a franchised staffing company, employees and job seekers were asked, "How do you wish your company showed appreciation to employees?" 27% said "cash bonus" and 13% said "pay raises." Gift cards trailed far behind, and even less appreciated were holiday parties.

Real Head Slappers!

Some jokes are so lame they are actually funny! Here are a few "funny" jokes to share with friends and family at your holiday gatherings.

- If you're cold, just stand in a corner for a few minutes. They are usually 90 degrees.
- Did you hear about the two thieves who stole a calendar? They each got six months!
- Why do you never see elephants hiding in trees? Because they are really, really good at it.
- I'm trying to get a job cleaning mirrors professionally. It's something I could really see myself doing.

- What's blue and smells like red paint? Blue paint.
  - What's the difference between a guitar and a fish? You can't "tuna fish"!
